

Dolmens : the Bourbouillet belvédère

Pays Beaume Drobie - LABLACHÈRE

Altimetric profile

Min elevation 114 m Max elevation 264 m

Useful information

Practice : Cycling

Duration : 3 h

Length : 17.1 km

Trek ascent : 189 m

Difficulty : Easy

Type : Loop

Themes : Patrimoine bâti

Trek

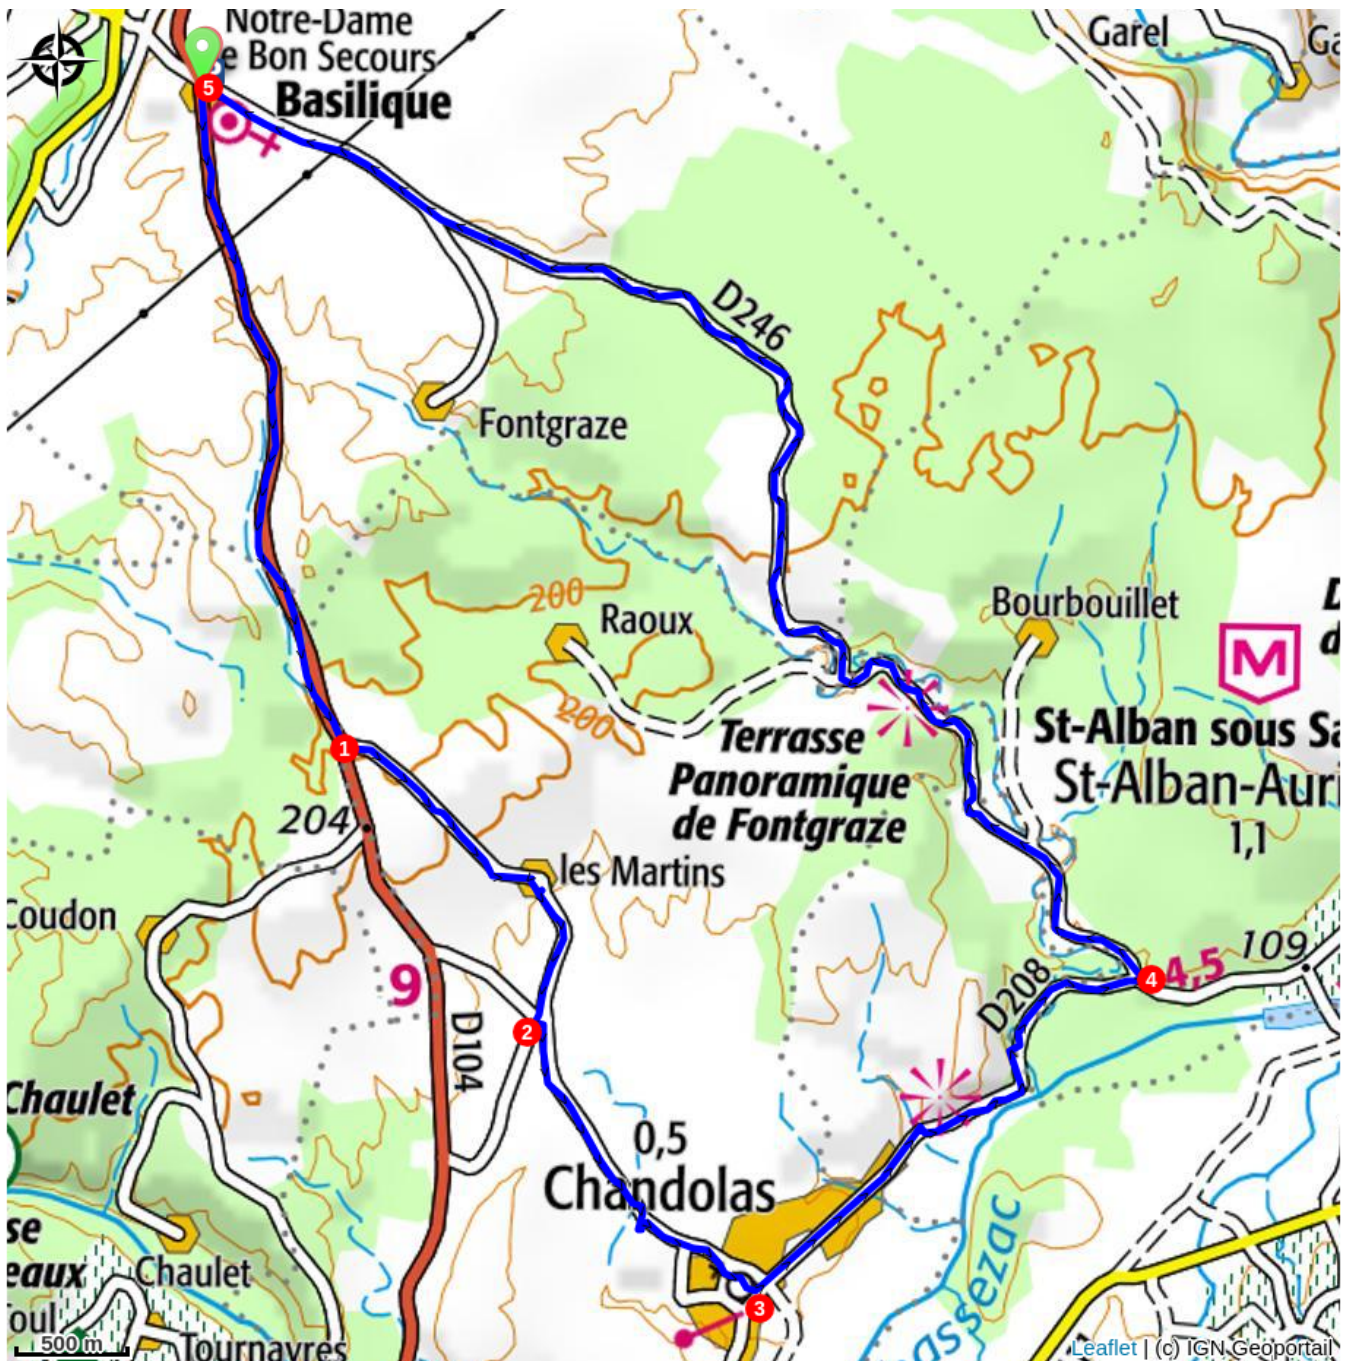

Departure : Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours church, Lablachère

Arrival : Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours church, Lablachère

Cities : 1. LABLACHÈRE 2. LES ASSIONS 3. CHANDOLAS 4. GROSPIERRES 5. SAINT-ALBAN-AURIOLLES

P - Car park, Basilique de Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours. When you leave the car par, turn left on the D104 and take the false flat downhill.

1. Entering Chandolas. At the signpost as you enter the village, turn left. Follow the main road.
2. At the crossroads, turn left (hairpin bend).
3. Chandolas. Go down to the D208 then turn left.
4. D208/D246 crossroads. After the campsite, turn left on the D246 towards Lablachère. The lookout post or belvedere overlooking the Fontgraze stream offers a view of a rocky landscape where three dolmens have been built on the edge of the ravine.
5. D246/D104 crossroads. Turn left on the D104 and return to the car park

⚠️ Advices

Dolmens are a fragile heritage. Please do not:

- Climb on the dolmens
- Move any stones around the monuments
- Dig or excavate

How to come ?

Access

From Les Vans (12 km) follow the D104a.

From Joyeuse (5 km) take the D104.

Advised parking

Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours church, Lablachère

Information desks

Office de tourisme des Cévennes d'Ardèche

contact@cevennes-ardeche.com

<https://www.cevennes-ardeche.com/>