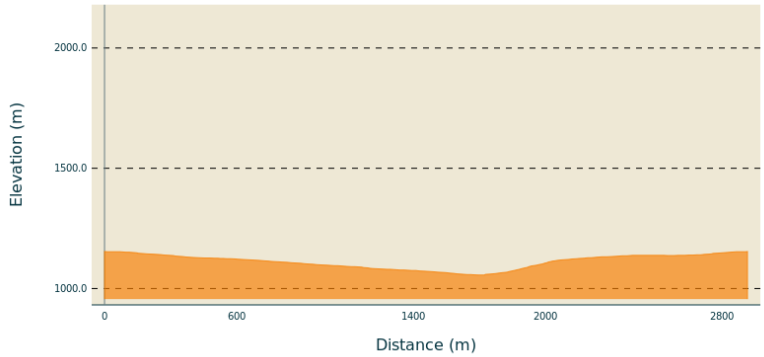
Le sentier géologique - N°26

Val Eyrieux

Altimetric profile



Min elevation 1056 m Max elevation 1154 m

Useful information

Practice : Hike

Duration : 1 h

Length : 2.9 km

Trek ascent : 99 m

Difficulty : Medium

Type : Loop

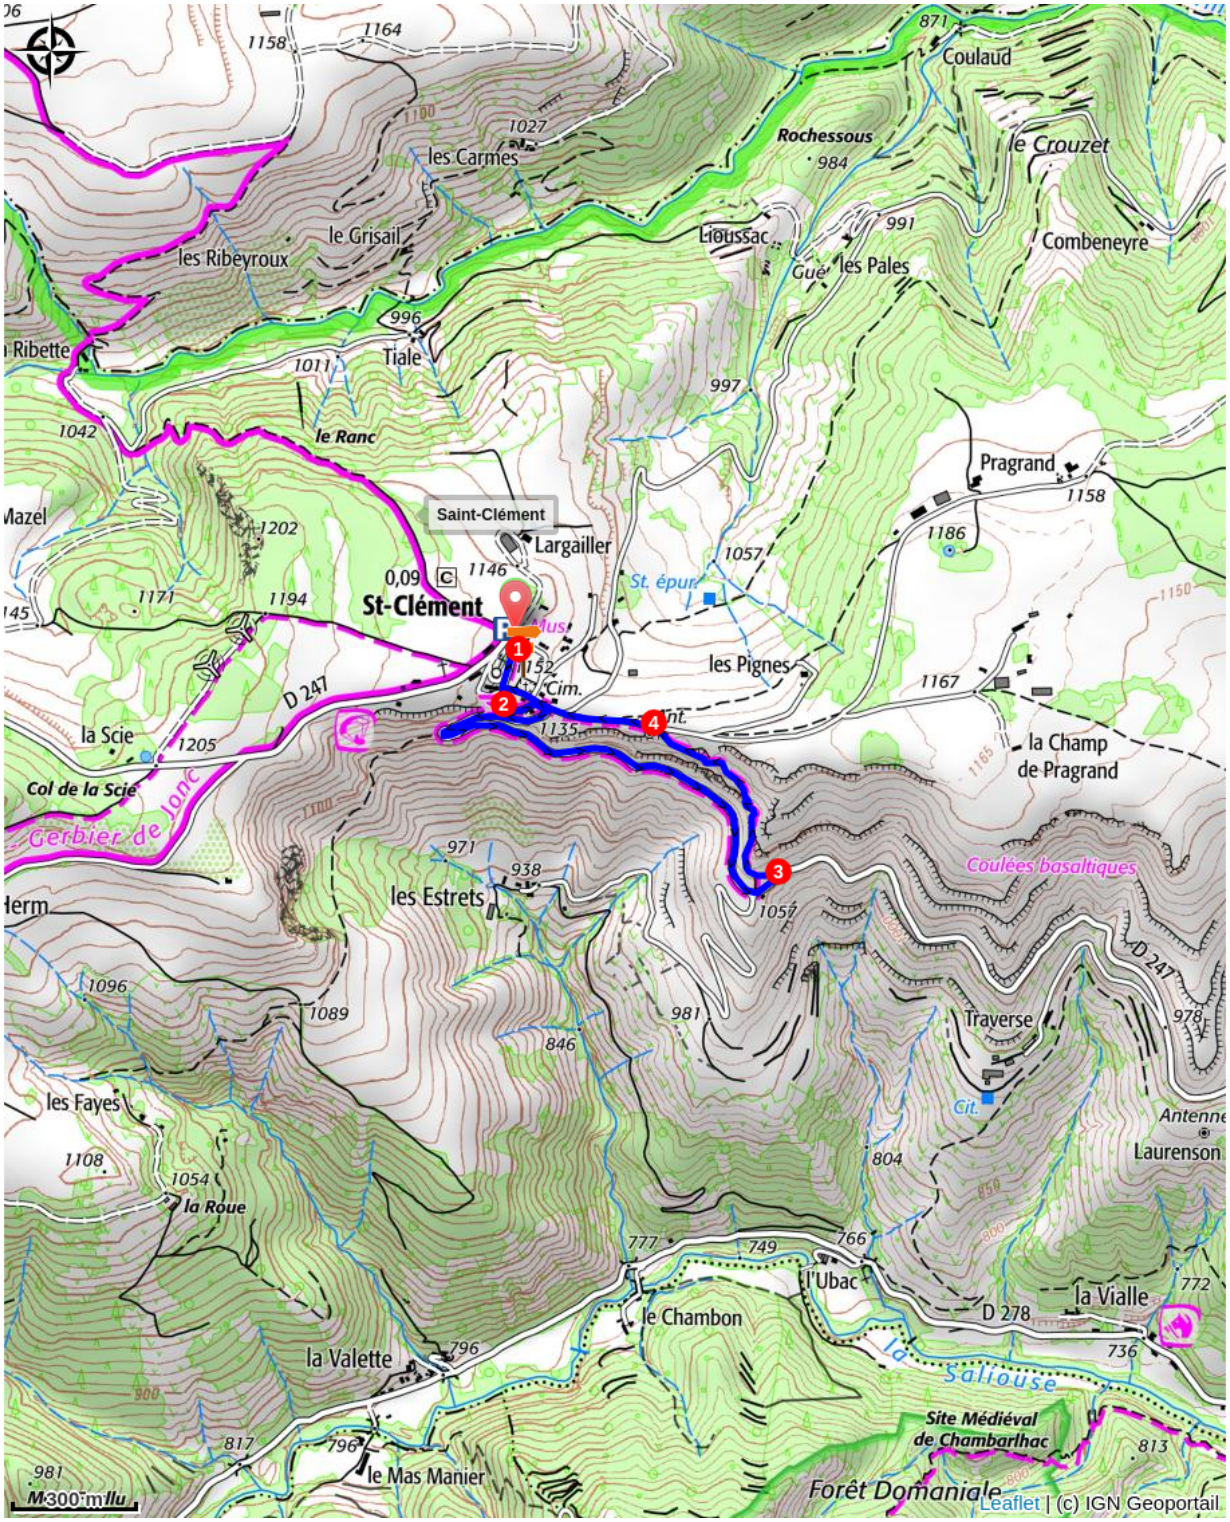
Themes : Geology, Summit and viewpoints

Trek

Departure : Ecole du vent (wind school) Saint-Clément

Cities : 1. SAINT-CLEMENT

1. From the Ecole du Vent, take the road D247 towards the bottom of the village, to the viewpoint indicator that will give you a first glimpse of this stunning landscape. You are in front of the biggest phonolitic range in Europe !
2. After the viewpoint indicator, continue on the road for 1.5 km.
3. Just after the crossways, go right towards Les Estrets, then turn left on the path going uphill in the basalt flows and follow it up to a narrow road.
4. Take the road on the left to go back to the village of Saint-Clément.



Advices

Attention, la première partie du sentier empreinte une départementale. Bien que peu fréquentée, soyez tout de même prudent.

How to come ?

Access

In the middle of nowhere but at the center of everything, Saint-Clément can be reached from the Eyrieux Valley on the road D278 then D247.

From Saint-Martin-de-Valamas, you can go down there from the Velay Plateau via Fay-sur-Lignon on the D247 and from the Southern Ardèche, go to Mont Mézenc and follow the road D410.

Advised parking

Ecole du vent, Saint-Clément