Cities : 1. JAUNAC

1. At the Rocher de Brion parking lot, go right below the parking lot. Follow the grassy path with the small hill on your left.
2. After 200 m, you will go past 3 interpretive boards "Des espaces en déprise", "l'espace mis en valeur", and "les formes d'habitat". The hike follows the main path, but you can go a little higher to look at two other boards, "géologie" and "flore". The path leads to a large area with ruined houses and medieval walls (interpretive board "les murs des maisons").
3. Go up to the old rampart in front of you. Follow it and the interpretive boards interspersed along the path. On the way back to the hill, you will find the board "un château au Moyen-Age". Go along the wall on the right (sight on the Rochebonne Castle). You will reach a new board, "la carrière".
4. Follow the path to the other side of the Brion Rock, with a view on Le Cheylard (and especially on the Chèze Castle) and the Rochebonne Castle. Stay on the path, along the Rock. The path becomes narrower and steeper. Be cautious, the way back is quite steep for 100 m to reach the parking lot, your starting point.

AdVICES

Balade facile, pour tous les publics sauf la redescente un peu raide si l'on fait le tour du sommet. Pour l'éviter, faire plutôt un aller-retour.
